Meet Jonathan Bardzik

Storyteller, author, and television star Jonathan Bardzik is a beloved, DC-based speaker and cook known for creating experiences centered around joy and connection, often working with the fresh, seasonal foods that inspire him. His mantra – that life can and should be filled with joy – brings an air of positivity, energy, and love that makes his performances one of a kind.

A self-taught culinary expert who left his corporate job to chase a dream, Jonathan is on a journey to help others form deeper relationships with those around them, discover their passions, communicate more freely with one another, and relish the moments that make life beautiful. Through his work, Jonathan shows clients how simple moments – like sharing a meal – can be the ultimate tool to spark connection and bring people closer together.
